With the price freeze and the increasing cost of living on evervone's mind, listen to these thoughts. A local grocery store manager told me several weeks ago that meat rationing and bacon under the counter" was not too far off for us. Many Elba housewives remember the war years when you only got bacon if you were a friend and good customer of the butcher!
Now this newspaper's Washington "Hotline" told us Monday that the government "is getting frantic about heading it off" Also don't look for lower food prices this year. With feed grain short and high farmers must have more money and the grocer is now getting less than 1% (.9) and can't absorb any

A good side of the freeze for us is that the post office came back and said our mailing charges would not go up until after the 60 day freeze. It wasn't our remarks last week that caused the about face but the remarks of editors across the nation pooled together I reckon.

It was a pleasure for me to hear that the Elba Recreation program will, for the first time this year, include a pro gram for the Dixie Youth boys who are NOT All-Stars. They will be in a slow pitch softball program that forbids practice with adults supervising - pure ole sand lot ball playing like "we used to do it". Bill Bullard made this announcement last week. For years I have been fussing because the socalled summer baseball program was over before summer had begun. The Dixie Youth teams finish their regular season tonight (Thursday) and it is still June. Of course the reasons are to give time for the All-Star playoffs but my answer was and is that originally the programs were to give

Can Me Mave The Flag Too Much?

Is it possible to wave the flag too much? Provided, of course, that you wave it with integrity? Is it possible to study Lincoln or Shakespeare too much? Is it possible to read the Bible too much? * The great, the good, the true, are inexhaustible for inspiration, example and strength. believe that we are not waving our flag enough, not nearly enough, It seems to me that we are developing a tendency to be timid or even apologetic about waving the stars and stripes. Walk up and down the streets July 4th and count the flags. It is our nation's birthday, a sacred day in world history, the most important day of America. Why isn't the flag flying on every rooftop and from every home and building? This complacent attitude is strong evidence of cancerous patrioti decay. The flag is a symbol of our national unity. It is the spirit of our undying devotion to our country. It stands for the best that is in us . . . for loyalty, character, and faith in democracy * Isn't our flag the symbo of the United States of America? Does it not represent man's greatest, noblest, most subline dream? Is it not the zenith of achievement, the goal to which generations have aspired? * Ladies and Gentlemen, I believe it is time for us . . . for the mad rushing twentieth century American . . . to stop for a moment and think. Let us arrest our near reverential admiration of material success and return to the so-called old-fashioned way of patriotism, a burning devotion to the principles and ideals upon which our country was founded * Should not every home and proudly displsy the colors on holidays and other occasions? Isn't the flag Patrick Henry, Jefferson, Franklin, Washington, Nathan Hale, Gettysburg and Valley Forge, Paul Revere, Jackson and other men and women who have given us our heritage. When you look at the flag can't you see the Alamo, Correigor, Pearl Harbor, The Monitor, The Merimac, Wake Island, and Korea? Lest we forget, isn't the flag Flanders Field, Bataan, Iwo Jima, Normandy, Babe Ruth and Davy Crockett? The great events of our past and present are wrapped up in our flag * It is a symbol of this blessed nation, a giant in industry, education and commerce. Millions of fertile square miles, wheatlands, coal mines, steel plants. Our great republic, the chosen infant destined to be man's last and remaining hope for suffering humanity, a shining beacon of light, noble and glorious, the haven for the oppressed and persecuted and truly God's gift to mankind* That is what the flag means to me. Can we wave it too much? I don't ADOLESCENT GROWTH It's common knowledge, I hope, that young people need more nutrients during most of their teen years than at any other time. It's possible that a young woman when pregnant might need as much. But for the sake of this discussion, let's set that subject aside.

Documenting precisely the growth that young people experi-

Findings Of The Study

The examination survey data indicate that American boys now reach puberty

According to an announcement of the results of the study by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare's National Center for Health Statistics:

Need Best Nutrition
The foregoing makes it rather Need Best Nutrition "American boys 12 years of age obvious that with such growth go average an even five feet, or 60 ing on, young people need the the average height is 67.5 inches, is one reason why the school and for 17-year olds, it is slightly lunch program is so vitally im

"Girls experience a similar growth pattern, though by 17 they average only a little over 64 inverse of the well but is a demonstration, ches in height. This is three inches more than their 12-year old heard in the classroom when good counterparts.

For both sexes, there are conconcomitant increases in weight. On the average, 17 year-old-boys weigh 150 pounds — or 55 pounds more than the 12-year olds. Girls of 17 years average 127 pounds, as compared with 103 pounds for 12-year olds.

But the responsibility of parents will always be terrifically important. Are you, if you are a parent, paying that much attentions. parent, paying that much atten These data on height and tion to your child's nutrition?
